

Lee Abbey Youth Camp

Jo: How you doing?

Jon: I am knackered. Hard fights. Unbeaten all season.

Tim: Undermined once – hard luck on being beaten by Maximilius

Jo: Thought you said you were unbeaten

Jon: Yeah, but only beaten by Maximilius, and Maximilius is really mean

Tim: Look there's maximilius!

Jon: Bragg, bragg, bragg – ben/Emily behind him – sees him, very scared!

Jo: So basically you had weren't unbeaten. In fact you were beaten by a 6 year old child.

Jon: Excuse : you've got to think about his headbutt– really very mean!

Jo: How many fights did you win?

Jon: Mumble

Jo: How many?

Jon: Well, none.

Jo: What's going wrong?

Jon: Just don't know. Know all the basics.

Jo and Jon check that Jon can handle the sword. He's pretty good.

Jo and Jon check that Jon can handle the shield. He's pretty good.

Jon: I really don't understand it. All fine, in fact pretty good. Learn a lot here, very happy. Then on the way out, after I have taken off my equipment and left it at the door, it just all seems to ..

Jo: You what?

Jon: I learn a lot here ...

Jo: No not that bit, after that.

Jon: Oh right, well ... after I have taken off my equipment and left it at the door.

Jo: Why on earth do you do that?

Lee Abbey Youth Camp

Jon: Well, you know how it is. Heavy. Aethetics: very last year. Same reason everyone else does.

Jo: I think I may have worked out why you keep losing your fights Jon.

Jon: What?

Jo: No one else does that! Everyone else takes their equipment with them. That's the whole point of camp. You learn stuff here that you can apply outside.

Jon: What even the sword?

Jo: Yes Jon even the sword.

Jon: One last thing Jo. Don't tell Maximilius about this. I don't want him to beat me up again. I know he's small, but he's got a dangerous left hook.
