

I Have Faith in God the Creator

Taglines:

1. 'I have faith in God as creator'
2. 'This means I am special, so are others and so is creation'

(Two angels enter the stage in conversation, how clearly they are made out to be angels can be decided later)

Angel 1: I don't know why I bother, I really don't. I was the one who stuck by him when others scoffed about his ability to create the world. I seemed to be defending him every single day about it. 'Trust him, he knows what he's doing' I said. And does he repay my trust? No! Dunno if you've heard about the latest funny story doing the rounds, it's called 'let's put the humans in charge of God's creation'. What a joke!

Angel 2: As angels it is our job to practice humility in a situation such as this.

Angel 1: You're telling me that it's right to just stand back and let the humans run everything?

Angel 2: If that's what has been decided, then yes.

Angel 1: Surely as angels this is what we were born to do! I had such great plans for what I, er...I mean we (he gestures to Angel 2) could achieve! I won't go into detail now obviously, but I had some amazing ideas. Think of the mess the humans will make of it! Take a look at that sea, it's crystal clear now but how long until that is ruined? I can't see those beautiful trees staying around for too long either.

Angel 2: You're judging them before they've had a chance to show you what they can do!

Angel 1: But I know what they can do – ruin everything! Just think how much of a better job we could do, isn't that what you want? Why did he choose to give the humans all the power anyway?

Angel 2: He made humans in his own image. Maybe we should trust him on this one.
